Circular Letter to all Arab Telecom Administrations and ITU-D Sector Members

Subject: Invitation to participate in the online course on Telecommunications Policies and Regulations, 4 October to 5 November 2009

Dear Sir/Madam,

The ITU Arab Regional Office is pleased to invite your esteemed administration / company to participate in the online course on Telecommunications Policies and Regulations, organized by the ITU Arab Center of Excellence within the implementation of its operational plan for 2009, in cooperation with the National Telecom Institute of Egypt.

The duration of this course is 5 weeks, and will start from 4/10 till 5/11/2009. The nominated participant(s) will need approximately 8-10 hours per week. The Internet will be the only medium to access the training material as well as to permit interaction between the tutor and the other trainees.

Please note that the registration is done online from the following ITU web address: <http://academy.itu.int/course/enrol.php?id=121>. Please send to our office a copy of the registration form after being filled either via e-mail: ITU-RO-ArabStates@itu.int or by Fax: +202 35 37 18 88, before 15 September 2009.

To maximise the benefits of this course, the total number has been limited to 40 participants. The administrator will confirm the acceptance of the candidates and will supply them with the relevant instructions for participation.

The ITU CoE-ARB will not collect any participation fees for this course, the priority will be given to the first come first served.

Hoping that this course will be useful for your administration / company.

Yours faithfully,

Dr. Miloud AMEZIANE

Head, ITU Arab Regional Office
