

Natasha Beschorner

Natasha Beschorner is a Senior Information & Communications Technology Policy Specialist, and the Regional Coordinator for the East Asia & Pacific team, in the World Bank's Global ICT Department. She has been with the World Bank since 1993, and is currently based in the World Bank's office in Indonesia. Her responsibilities include the design and management of investment projects and technical assistance programs on telecommunications reform and ICT for development. Within the Pacific, she manages the World Bank's advisory assistance programs on telecommunications liberalization, regulatory capacity development and rural connectivity in Fiji, Papua New Guinea, Solomon Islands, Timor-Leste, Vanuatu, and travels extensively throughout the Pacific every year.

At the regional level she is currently leading analytical work on Pacific Regional Connectivity, and a possible Regional Telecommunications/ICT Regulatory Resource centre.

Natasha Beschorner

Senior ICT Policy Specialist

Global Information & Communication Technologies Dept The World Bank-Jakarta

Tel: +62 21 5299 3106

Fax: +62 21 5299 3111