Contents

• Title
• Co-Organization
• Venue
• Agenda
• Participants / Presenters
• Expectation
• Contribution
Title

- Asia-Pacific Regional Workshop

- Fighting Cybercrime

  - Cybercrime: UNODC(TAJ) & ITU: Workshop on Fighting Cybercrime (2011)
Co-organization

• United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime
  – Regional Center for East Asia and the Pacific

• International Telecommunication Union
  – Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific
Venue

• Republic of Korea
  – No. 1 as the world’s most advanced ICT economy
    (ITU’s flagship annual ICT report ‘Measuring the Information Society 2011’)

• Supreme Prosecutors’ Office
  – High-level Prosecutors’ Meeting (last year)
  – Highest and Central Investigation Agency
Agenda

• Main Topics
  – Overview of Cybercrime and its economic Impact (Session 2, 3)
  – International Legal Frameworks for fighting Cybercrime (Session 5)
  – Technical Measures to Combat Cybercrime (Session 6, 7)
  – International and Regional Cooperation in fighting Cybercrime (Session 9)
Agenda

• Current Practical Challenges
  – Philippines, Vietnam, Myanmar, Korea (Session 4)
  – Thailand, Brunei, Lao PDR, Singapore, Indonesia (Session 8)

• Round Table Discussion (Session 10)
Participants

• Prosecutors
  – 20 Delegates from 10 ASEAN Countries
  – Delegates from the Republic of Korea

• IT Officers and Experts
  – 23 Delegates from 17 Countries
Ms. Gillian Murray
UNODC

Dr. Won Sang Lee
Korean Institute of Criminology

Dr. Raymond Choo
University of South Australia

Dr. Minwoo Yun
Hansei University
Mr. Marco Obiso
International Telecommunication Union (ITU)

Mr. Ashish Narayan
International Telecommunication Union (ITU)

Dr. Marco Gercke
Cybercrime Research Institute

Mr. Jinyun Cho
Korea Internet & Security Agency
Expectation

- Bridging the Gap between Prosecutors and IT Experts
  - Interactive discussion

- Awareness Raising and Capacity Building
  - Technical Skills and Legal Knowledge

- Enhanced Networking
  - Country to Country, Country to UN, Within Country
Contribution

• Supreme Prosecutors’ Office
• Korean Institute of Criminology
• Korea Internet Security Agency
Thank you