

International Internet Connectivity Case : Indonesia

Presentation will describe situation of internet connectivity in Indonesia for both mobile and fixed internet including number of users, internet media, type of internet application and type and number of internet services provider and overall of Indonesian internet statistic. Presentation also will explain about international internet bandwidth consumption by Indonesian operator both for the number, price and trend. It is also describe international internet link as IP transit including its cost structure, portion in internet connectivity cost and grade of cost. Presentation will close by summary of Indonesia national policies and regulations for international internet connectivity.