

BRIEF RESUME : SAMEER SHARMA

Mr. Sameer Sharma was born on 18th November 1968. He obtained Bachelor of Electronics & Communications (B.E. Honours) from M.B.M. Engineering College, Jodhpur, India in 1990.

Mr. Sameer Sharma joined Siemens Ltd in 1990 and worked as Engineer in Medical Engineering Division. Subsequently, he was worked as Assistant Professor in Engineering College, Jaipur.

In 1992 he joined Indian Broadcasting Engineering Service, (IBES). He worked at various levels in All India Radio Stations located in various parts of the country. He was responsible for operations and maintenance of High Power, Medium Wave and Short Wave Transmitters. He also worked in the Directorate General of All India Radio in the capacity of Assistant Director where the primary role was formulation of plans and policy for Broadcasting. In 1997 he joined, the biggest T.V. station of the country where he worked with Satellite Up Link Station, maintenance & operation of India's number one entertainment T.V. Channel `DD Metro' and also worked with `DD News' channel.

In 1998 Mr. Sameer Sharma joined Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI) worked as Director (Convergence Networks) entrusted with the responsibility of regulating Telecom Sectors in India. Mr. Sharma has primarily worked on liberalisation of basic and long distance sector, Interconnection of Fixed and Mobile Networks, Quality of Service, Internet Telephony and Convergence etc.

Mr. Sharma has been working as Advisor to the Malaysian Communications and Multimedia Commission since March 2003. Extensive work under taken in the field of Unbundling of local Loop , IP Telephony, Access and Interconnection , Digital Power Line Communications, Quality of Service of IP and Broad band Networks, International Settlement Policy, Convergence of telecom , broadcasting and IT .

Mr. Sameer Sharma has been the Rapporteur in ITU on IP Telephony during 2001. At present acting as Rapporteur on Mobile Termination Rates in ITU SG 3 on Accounting and Settlement rates.