

CURRICULUM VITAE OF MR. KABINDRA SHRESTHA, ASSISTANT MANAGER, NEPAL TELECOMMUNICATIONS AUTHORITY.

Mr. Kabindra Shrestha holds the position of Assistant Manager (Engineering Section) in Nepal Telecommunications Authority (NTA), the Telecommunications Regulatory Body of Nepal, as a permanent staff from December 2003. Mr. Shrestha is responsible for studying, developing criteria for identifying and defining the measurable QoS, developing specifications or identifying equipment necessary for monitoring QoS, developing guidelines for the wireless technologies such as Global System for Mobile Communications (GSM), International Mobile Telecommunications for year 2000 (IMT-2000), Wireless in Local Loop (WiLL), Wideband CDMA (WCDMA), GMPCS, Satellite Systems, etc. as well as carrying out research studies on new wireless technologies. He is also an assistant coordinator for the International Organizations like APT and ITU.

Mr. Shrestha holds a degree in Electrical and Electronics Engineering from Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology, Dhaka (Bangladesh). He started his career as a lecturer in Kathmandu Engineering College in year 2003 and has taught various Electronics Engineering courses during that period. He was also involved in providing trainings to NTA staffs regarding various software and hardware of computer.

Mr. Shrestha has got training on Regulatory Environment in Malaysia under the fellowship of ITU and presently he is involved in technical studies and making recommendation about various wireless equipments.