

CV of Mr. B.R.Suresh for ITU seminar on BWA for rural & remote access

Suresh. B.R has graduated in Electronics & Telecommunications engineering from Institute of Engineers, Bangalore, India in 1988 & later PG Dip in Technology Management. Since then he has been working in C-DOT (Centre for Development of Telematics), Bangalore, India, in the areas of telecom hardware design, development & product engineering. He was involved in Design & development of C-DOT's Rural solutions including rugged Rural switches and high capacity Class 4 and Class 5 Switches. Currently, he is involved in architecture definition, development & up-gradation of C-DOT rural wire-line systems with radio access & broadband wireless access.