Title: Towards fixed and mobile convergence

Abstract

IMS, originated from mobile world, now has been recognized as key service control architecture for next generation network to enable fixed and mobile convergence. This presentation will address the following questions:

-What does "Fixed Mobile Convergence" mean?

-What is the real benefit for IMS deployment?

-What is the possible barrier for IMS deployment?

-How to migrate from the existing network to IMS network for fixed carrier and full service provider?