

Stephane Lecomte

After getting his Business School diploma in Paris, Stephane spent 3 years in Sema-Group to become a specialist in Information Systems design. In 1989, he became a consultant in business management and technology. Stephane joined Alcatel Corporate in 1997 where he primarily focused on the integration of Alcatel acquisitions in North America. He joined Corporate Operations in 2001 as Director Design-to-Supply. Since 2004, Stephane has joined the Broadband Wireless Access unit of Alcatel. He is now Business Development Director for Broadband Wireless Access in Africa.