

Biography

Fabrizio Savi is 51 and has been working in Telecom Italia since 1982. A graduate in law, he is currently in charge of the legislation and regulation department in the Directorate for public affairs.

Following his experiences of Head of international regulatory affairs and of Telecom Italia representative office in Bruxelles from 1995 to 2000, he contributed to the implementation of the 1999 European regulatory package in the Italian legislation.

Currently, he is Rapporteur of the ITU-D SG2 question 10-2/1 “Regulation for licensing and authorization of converging services”.