

Bio

Turhan Muluk, joined Intel in February 2006. He is currently working at EMEA Communication Team as Wireless Standards and Regulations Manager, responsible from Government Affairs. Before joining to Intel he worked 14 years for Turk Telekom at different wireless projects (such as WLL, GSM, Wi-Fi, WiMAX etc.). He is involved ETSI, ITU wireless studies and currently vice rapporteur at ITU-D Q18/2, Q20/2. He is graduated from electrical and electronics engineering department of the METU, Turkey.