

Session 2: ITU standardization activities on NGN and Broadband

- Collaboration with external organizations, John Visser (Chairman, TSAG)
 - Standards Development Organization in today's environment find that cooperation and collaboration are essential aspects of building a successful suite of standards for a complete functioning system. This presentation describes the approach of the ITU-T to working with other standards bodies and provides some examples in the areas of NGN and broadband.