

ITU-D Regional Development Forum for the Asia Pacific Region
“NGN and Broadband, Opportunities and Challenges”
Yogyakarta, Indonesia, 27-29 July 2009

Case Study on Sustainable National Broadband Proliferation

Bhesh Raj Kanel,
Chairman, Nepal Telecommunications Authority (NTA)

Author

Mr. Kanel was borne in Western Nepal in 1947. He got his M.Sc. in Telecommunications Engineering from Electro Technical Institute of Telecommunications named after Prof. Bonch Bruevich, Leningrad, Russia in 1973. He has attended seminars, workshops and trainings in various fields Engineering, Management, Regulation and Education Technology in over 20 countries. He worked in various capacities in Nepal Telecom from 1973 to 2005 and retired Deputy Managing Director in Rural Telecommunications. He worked as program coordinator in College of Biomedical Engineering and Applied Sciences (CBEAS) from 2005 to 2008. Mr. Kanel joined Nepal Telecom Authority as Chairman in Nov 2008. He has also worked as Training Consultant in Sri Lanka for one year, as a Planning and Training Consultant in Mongolia. He has also worked as consultant for various other agencies. He has worked as a visiting faculty in engineering colleges. He is also actively involved in various professional and social organizations. He is currently also a member of the Academic Council and chairs the Electronics, Communication and Computer Subject Committee of Pokhara University.