

Short Bio Jan Verduijn

Jan Verduijn has experience in Spectrum Management since 1976 starting in the Monitoring Service of the Radiocommunications Agency, the Netherlands, in various functions, finally becoming Head of the Monitoring Department in 1989. In 1999 he became member of the team taking care for the international component of the Radiocommunications Agency of the Netherlands.

Jan is active in ITU since 1993 especially in ITU-R Study Group 1 of which he is Vice Chairman since 2003. Furthermore he is Chairman of SG1 Working Party 1C on monitoring. He was also chairman of the group responsible for the development of the Handbook on Spectrum Monitoring edition 2002.

Jan went on early retirement end 2005 and since that time he is working as independent consultant for Spectrum Research Consultancy.