

SHORT BIOGRAPHY

Oscar González Soto
(oscar.gonzalez-soto@ties.itu.int)

Current Position

- Consultant for Strategic Planning and Assessment in the Telecom sector associated to the ITU-BDT on the programs for Network and Business Planning towards NGN, IMT2000 and Convergence in Telecom.
- Member of the International Advisory Council and Technical Committee for the International Teletraffic Congress (ITC) on Performance and Quality of Service.
- Member of the Management and Scientific Committee of the International Networks Symposium on Network Strategy and Planning.

Previous positions

- Director of Network Planning and Economics at the Alcatel centre for Network Design and Integration at Paris HQ.
- Chairman for the Research and Consultancy at the multi-country Planning Division of ALCATEL-Alsthom.
- Director for Teletraffic and Network Optimization at ITT Research Centre in Madrid after holding positions on project manager for Economic analysis, Performance auditing, Quality of Service and Teletraffic methodologies.

Background education

Oscar González Soto graduated as Telecommunication Engineer at the Escuela Superior de Ingenieros de Telecomunicación de Madrid in 1969. Performed doctoral courses on Data Communications and master seminars in Strategy for the International Telecom Industry at the London Business School and at the Euroforum- INSEAD.