

ANTONIO MARINI DE ALMEIDA

Post graduate in Telecommunications by University of Campinas (UNICAMP) and MBA by Escola Superior de Administração e Marketing of Campinas (ESAMC) and technologist by Methodist University of Piracicaba (UNIMEP)

Antonio works since 1985 at CPqD (Former Telebrás R&D Center) and worked in processing labs for RF integrated microelectronic devices for 15 years.

From 2000 up to 2010 was responsible by NIR radiation measuring (laboratory and field measurements) including SAR measurements and also coordinated R&D activities at CPqD Labs in RF area and participated in Brazilian Regulation groups in RF and NIR areas.

Actually is Innovation and Product Marketing Manager of Laboratories and Network Infrastructure Corporate Department from CPqD

