

Ouseph Padickakudi, Programme Manager, UNIDO

Ouseph Padickakudi, Programme Manager of the Trade Capacity Building Branch of UNIDO, possesses a Master of Business Administration degree in International Business and Diploma in Telecommunications. He has more than 10 years of UNIDO experience in technology transfer operations such as technology market, technology sourcing, technology acquisition, training, business partnerships and investment promotion. He is a professional staff member of the UNIDO's Trade Capacity Building Branch for the last 7 years and manages several large-scale standards, metrology, testing, and quality related projects in different countries, particularly in Bangladesh, Bhutan, China, Libya, Maldives, Mongolia, Nepal and Ukraine. In relation with the Quality Management Systems, the staff member undertook the ISO 9000, ISO 14000, ISO 17025, HACCP and ISO 22000 training programmes.

UNIDO_OP_June 2012