

Realities of Regulation in a Changing World

Mini Case Study

Bill Wigglesworth

Yasmine Hammamet, Tunisia

12 November 2005

What is wrong with this regulatory body?

- The attached sheet describes an imaginary regulatory body, drawn from real life examples
- You are asked to assess what are the key things wrong with the body and what should be done about it

Procedure

- Please divide into three discussion groups, as before
- Appoint a chairman, rapporteur and spokesperson
- Agree the six most important weaknesses suggested by the study and what might be done about them
- Be ready to report to main group by 16.30