

Bharat Bhatia

Mr. Bharat Bhatia has over 37 years of experience in Telecom and ICT policy, regulations and spectrum management.

Currently he heads the Motorola Solutions' Government Affairs and Public Policy activities for the Asia Pacific Region

Mr. Bhatia is an expert on Emergency and disaster communications and Chairs the APT Task Group on Public safety and disaster Relief Communications. He was the key originator of ITU Resolution 646 on spectrum for Public protection and disaster Relief - PPDR communications

Mr. Bhatia was a senior regulator with Government of India for 22 years as a spectrum regulator and Telecom policy specialist. He was also actively involved in formulation and implementation of India's ICT policies. He regularly attends and speaks at various Global conferences and meetings and has attended various ITU-R meetings including many World Radio Conferences

Mr. Bhatia holds a B. E. degree from University of Delhi and is a fellow member of the IETE. Mr. Bhatia has also completed a number of management programs from various global universities including National University of Singapore and George Washington University, USA.