Version of Declaration Form: Febraury 2003

Licensing declaration:

Option 2_The Software Copyright Holder will grant – on the basis of reciprocity for the above ITU-T Recommendation – a license to an unrestricted number of applicants on a worldwide, non-discriminatory basis and on reasonable terms and conditions to use the copyrighted material to reproduce, modify, use and/or distribute the Software for the limited purpose of implementing the above ITU-T Recommendation. Reasonable and non-discriminatory terms and conditions will be imposed by the said license as summarized (excluding royalty or fee basis terms) in attached documentation. Negotiations on the license are left to the parties concerned and are performed outside the ITU-T.

Licensing to other SDOs:

Software Copyright Holder permits the ITU to provide the software under license to other Standards Developing Organizations for standardization purposes, under condition that the SDO will ensure that an appropriate copyright notice will accompany the software such that the Software Copyright Holder will be able to impose on the recipient of the software any terms and conditions associated with the option selected by the Software Copyright Holder in this Declaration Form.

Software Name:

16/32-bit fixed-point C source code for the encoder and decoder of Annex C of ITU-T Recommendation G.722.1

Software Version: Version 1.0.

Attached documents to the statement:

Polycom offers royalty-free licenses to Polycom-controlled patents and copyrights necessary to implement, use, and sell the 14 kHz mode of Annex C/G.722.1 to all parties on a non-discriminatory basis. The royalty-free license terms require that credit is given to Polycom Inc. for the algorithm in all specifications, marketing literature, and other licensee-provided materials which mention the audio codec. Other terms also apply. For those parties unwilling to accept these conditions, royalty-bearing reasonable and non-discriminatory licensing is also offered in accordance with the ITU-T Patent Policy and ITU-T Software Copyright Policy. This is a summary; please contact Polycom, Inc. directly to obtain a license.

Version of Declaration Form: Before February 2003

Licensing declaration:

Option 1.3_The Software Copyright Holder will grant – on the basis of reciprocity for the above ITU-T Recommendation – a free license to an unrestricted number of users on a worldwide, non-discriminatory basis to reproduce, modify, use and/or distribute the Software for the limited purpose of implementing the above ITU-T Recommendation. No additional terms and conditions will be imposed by the said license and the license conditions set forth in Annex C Option 1.3 will apply. Users do not need to contact the Software Copyright Holder for a license.

Licensing to other SDOs:

Software Copyright Holder permits the ITU to provide the software under license to other Standards Developing Organizations for standardization purposes, under condition that the SDO will ensure that an appropriate copyright notice will accompany the software such that the Software Copyright Holder will be able to impose on the recipient of the software any terms and conditions associated with the option selected by the Software Copyright Holder in this Declaration Form.
