

ITU-T Workshop

“Opportunities and Challenges in Home Networking”

CV

Geneva, 13 – 14 October 2005

MONFORT JEAN-YVES
FRANCE TELECOM

Session Chair

Session 5: Quality of Service in Home Network

Professionnal Experience

Currently Deputy Director of Standards Steering in France Telecom, and Senior Expert in France Telecom.

During 5 years, he was Deputy Head of DIH/EQS Laboratory (Human Interactions/ Evaluation and acceptability of Services Quality), in charge of studies on subjective and objective assessment of media (speech, video, audio,...) and of Usability testing of new equipments and services.

He was before Manager of Research and Development Units specialized in voice transmission quality, telephony terminals and Electroacoustics.

Education

Doctor Engineer of Applied Acoustics, Le Mans
Electronics Engineer, ENSEEIHT, Toulouse

Additional informations

Currently Chairman of ETSI TC STQ (since October 2004), and Vice Chair of APSC-Telemov.

He is the author of a lot of technical specifications for France Telecom, France, of ETSI standards and ITU-T Recommendations, and of technical papers.

He gave numbers of conference on speech quality, performance and QoS in seminars, workshops and congresses, including in close relationship with his activity of SG 12 Chairmanship (for APT, West Africa, ETSI, ITU-T workshops,...)

General Secretary of French Acoustical Society during 5 years

Professor of Electro-acoustics at the University (Sound and mage) during more than 10 years. Chevalier des Palmes Académiques.