

International Telecommunication Union

CAP Developments in Washington State

Don Miller

Telecommunications and Warning Systems Manager Washington State Emergency Management

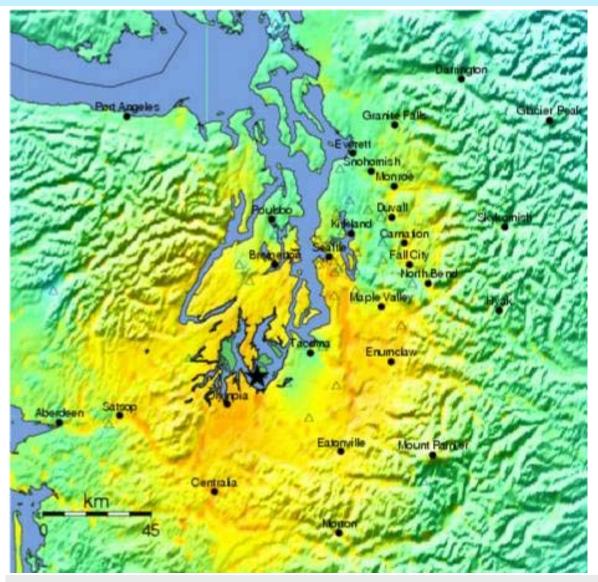

Washington State Disasters

Nisqually 6.8 Earthquake

- o MystateUSA.com & WSI Pilot Project
 - Compatible with Emergency Alert System (EAS).
 - 2. CAP Compliant
 - 3. Excellent Text-to-Voice conversion
 - 4. Ability to pre-script alerts
 - 5. Logging functions
 - 6. Website posting
 - 7. Compatible with HazCollect

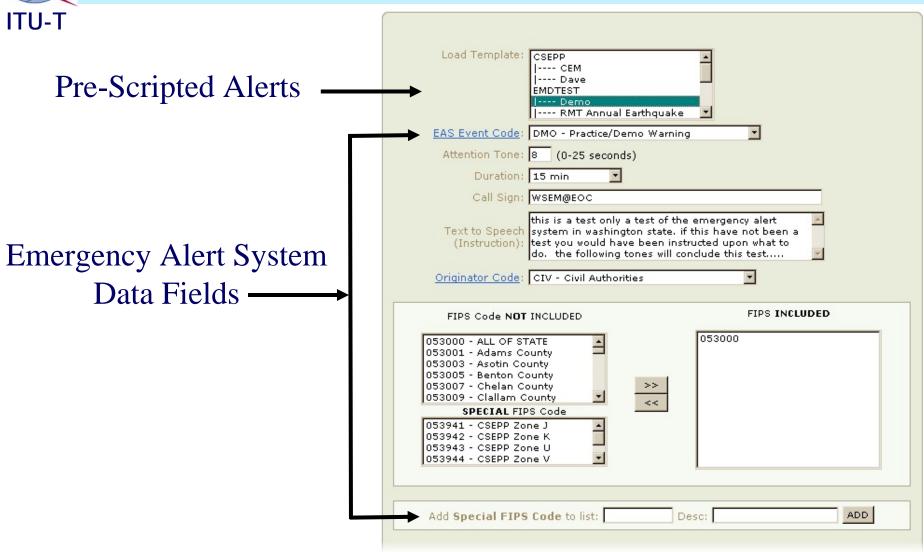

- o MystateUSA.com & WSI Pilot Project
 - 7. CAP messages to WSI interface devices at AM/FM and TV broadcast stations.
 - 8. Opt-in feature for public alerts
 - Special Child Abduction alerting fields
 - 10. Distribution of warnings via cell phones, telephones, email and other electronic media to prescribed groups.
 - 11. Administrative and user access levels
 - 12. Security via SSL

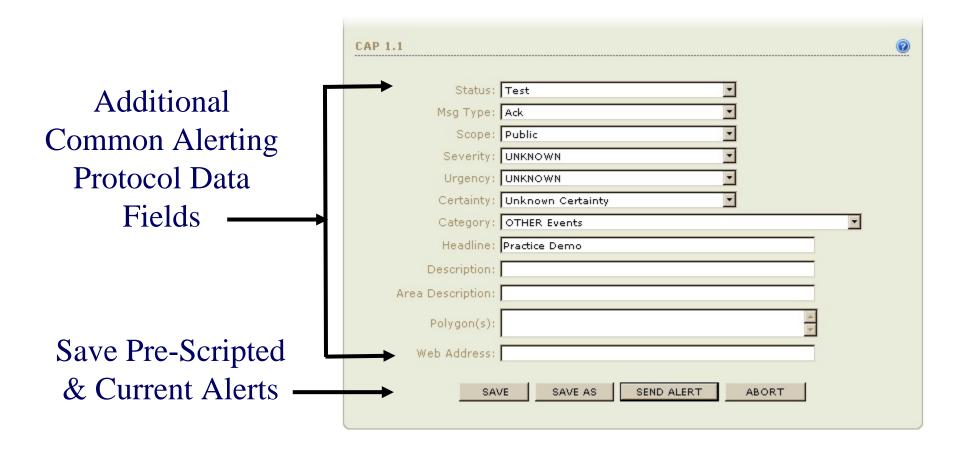

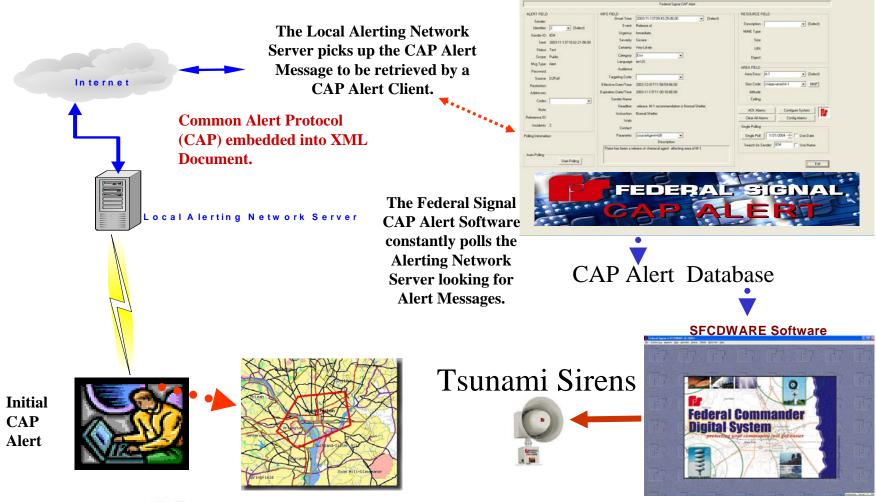

Federal Signal Corporation CAP Project

HazCollect Putting CAP to Work

- All-Hazards Emergency Message Collection System
- Developed by NWS in partnership with DHS Office for Interoperability and Compatibility
- Emergency Manager authors CAP-compliant Non-Weather Emergency Message
- Message sent to HazCollect for automatic distribution through NWS Dissemination Systems
- Significantly faster than current process

The Public

HazCollect

o Status

- Completing Operational Acceptance Testing
- Expect late 2006 release
- Interface specification to DHS Open Platform for Emergency Networks (OPEN) in testing
- o Current Challenges
 - Commercial vendor developments, GUI, OPEN, private distribution networks and vendor added features
 - Policies for access to warning COGS
 - Legal Issues

Mt St Helens

