

ITU-T Workshop
"Reform of technical Regulation: International Experience of standardization in the field of Communication"

CV

Almaty, 23-24 November 2005

Magdolna Nándorfi, National Communications Authority, Hungary

Session Session 4 QoS Standardization
Title of presentation QoS Standardization, in general

At first she was graduated from the University of Scientific of Eötvös Loránd and later from the Technical University. After graduating she joined to the Research Institut of Hungarian Post and dealt with transmission technic and network planning. She had a degree of doctorate from system engineering. Later she have been engaged with operation and maintenance, including the Quality of Service, from the theoretical points of view. From 1999 she is at the National Communications Authority, Hungary. She is a member of ITU-T SG2. In the last study period she was the Editor of Handbook on QoS and NP. Now she is the Coordinator of Handbook's matter.