Addendum 1 to Administrative Circular CACE/1005

To Administrations of Member States of the ITU, Radiocommunication Sector Members, ITU-R Associates participating in the work of the Radiocommunication Study Group 6 and ITU Academia

Subject: Meeting of Radiocommunication Study Group 6 (Broadcasting Service), e-Meeting, 18 March 2022

1 Introduction

Further to Administrative Circular CACE/1005 dated 9 December 2021, and due to the continuing exceptional circumstances caused by the Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak, Study Group (SG) 6 will now be convened fully electronically (remote participation only / virtual meeting) on the date indicated in the table below. This decision has prioritized the need to ensure the health and safety of all participants and to guarantee adequate levels of participation.

Group	Meeting date	Deadline for contributions	Opening session
Study Group 6	Friday, 18 March 2022	Friday, 11 March 2022 at 1600 hours UTC	Friday, 18 March 2022 at 1200 hours (local time)

2 Programme of the meeting

The draft agenda of the meeting of SG 6 is already contained in Administrative Circular CACE/1005.

The working hours of the meetings are scheduled to be 1200 to 1600 hours Geneva time. In view of the circumstances, the above-mentioned working hours will be applicable, on an exceptional basis, also to Friday's session. These working hours were chosen to accommodate the participation of delegates from various time zones. Other relevant information will be published on the SG website, as well as in administrative and information documents.

3 Remote participation

Details for remote participation can be found in Administrative Circular CACE/1005.

All existing requests for physical participation will be automatically converted to remote participation by the ITU.

For further questions relating to this Addendum, please contact, Mr Ruoting Chang, Study Group 6 Counsellor, at ruoting.chang@itu.int.
