

RESOLUTION ITU-R 12-1

Handbooks and special publications for development of radiocommunication services

(1993-2000)

The ITU Radiocommunication Assembly, considering

a) that close cooperation shall be carried out among the Radiocommunication, Telecommunication Standardization and Telecommunication Development Sectors (No. 79 of the ITU Constitution);

b) that Radiocommunication handbooks and special publications constitute an authoritative source of technical material relating to radiocommunications that may be of direct benefit to developing countries,

bearing in mind

a) that there is a need to disseminate information contained within handbooks and special publications as widely as possible throughout the ITU membership in a form which is readily understandable and that can be applied practically, especially in the training of technicians and engineers for use in developing countries, resolves

1 that in establishing priorities for the preparation and publishing of handbooks and special publications, special consideration should be given to the needs of developing countries, invites

1 the Telecommunication Development Sector to indicate what special subjects would be most useful to developing countries so that planning for handbooks and special publications may be undertaken.
