Privilege Telecommunications

CTITU B09 of 6.I.2000:

Denunciation by the Administration of Switzerland of the special arrangements between Switzerland and ITU headquarters on franking privileges for "service telecommunications" and "privilege telecommunications" – Arrangements made by ITU headquarters for conferences and meetings to be held at ITU headquarters as from 1 January 2000.

Note from the Secretary-General of the ITU

The Swiss Administration having denounced the special arrangements between Switzerland and ITU headquarters on franking privileges for service telecommunications and privilege telecommunications, effective 1 January 2000, the Secretary-General of ITU wishes to draw the attention of administrations of ITU Member States to the communication on this subject, which was circulated by ITU Circular Telegram No. CTITU B08 dated 8 December 1999, the text of which is also reproduced in ITU Operational Bulletin No. 706 of 15 December 1999.

Administrations are requested to take note of the fact that at conferences and meetings held at ITU headquarters in Geneva from 1 January 2000 onwards, the telecommunication facilities traditionally made available to delegates and participants and which were considered as "privilege telecommunications" (telephone, telex, telegrams) will be replaced by services for which delegates and participants will have to pay.

Legal time changes

Croatia

Communication of 20.XII.1999:

Legal time in Croatia will be advanced by 60 minutes from 26 March 2000 at 0100 hours UTC to 29 October 2000 at 0100 hours UTC and thereby will correspond to UTC +2.

Egypt

Communication of 26.XII.1999:

Telecom Regulatory Authority, Cairo, announces that legal time in Egypt will be advanced by 60 minutes from 27 April 2000 to 28 September 2000 and thereby will correspond to UTC +3.

Changes in Administrations/ROAs and other entities or Organizations

Cameroon

Communications of 28.XI.1999 and 28.XII.1999:

Organization of the telecommunication sector

The Ministère des Postes et Télécommunications, Yaoundé, announces that, as a result of the restructuring of Cameroon's Post and Telecommunication Sector undertaken by the Government of the Republic of Cameroon, the telecommunication sector has been reorganized. The aim is to ensure balanced and harmonious development of networks and services in a competitive environment, with private sector participation, so that the telecommunication sector contributes to the development of the national economy and in order to satisfy the various needs of users and the general public. The new organization of the telecommunication sector is as follows*:

– Administration

The Ministère des Postes et Télécommunications is the administration responsible for telecommunications. It handles the development, implementation and application of telecommunication sector policy (supervision, including supervision of public enterprises; representing the State; formal granting authorizations).
