

Douglas Broderick

UN Resident Coordinator/UNDP Resident Representative

Douglas Broderick is the UN Secretary General's designated representative in Indonesia and leads the UN Country Team of resident and non-resident agencies. He has submitted his credentials to the Government of Indonesia through Minister of Foreign Affairs. He had previously served as UN Resident Coordinator and UNDP Resident Representative in Cambodia.

Mr Broderick has 30 years' international development experience working as a senior manager with the UN in Bangladesh, China, North Korea, Armenia, (former) Yugoslavia, Eritrea, Rwanda, and Djibouti. He also worked with Catholic Relief Services in Iraq, the United States of America, Jerusalem, the West Bank and Gaza, Egypt and Thailand.

Mr Broderick was educated at the University of California, Berkeley USA and universities in Spain and Mexico. He completed the Senior Managers Programme at Harvard University.