

09:30 – 10:00	Introduction and Welcome RubenCortina, Vice-President, UNI Global Union
10:00 – 11:30	Session 1: Social and Fundamental Rights
10:00 – 10:30	Fundamental labour rights for the future of work Valerio De Stefano, BOFZAP Professor of Labour Law at KU Leuven
10:30 – 11:00	Organising beyond the comfort zone Lowell Peterson, Executive Director of the WGA-East
11:00 – 11:30	Q and A
Coffee/tea break	11:30 -11:45
11:45 – 13:00	Session 2: Ethical AI and data protection
11:45 – 12:15	How digital and networking technologies could contribute to a fairer world (and what they do now) Konstantinos Karachalios, Managing Director for IEEE-SA
12:15 – 12:45	Why workers must claim their data rights Christina Colclough, Director UNI Global Union
12:45 – 13:15	Q and A
13:15– 1430	Lunchtime
14:30 – 16:00	Session 3: Equal Opportunities
14:30 – 15:00	Digital Colonialism Renata Avila Pinto, Human Rights Lawyer, Board member, Trustee
15:00 – 1530	How Information and Communication Technologies (ICTs) can provide equal opportunities and contribute to women empowerment? Roxana Widmer, Senior Program Officer for Digital Inclusion at ITU
15:30 – 16:00	Q and A
Coffee/tea break	16:00-16:15

16:15 – 17:30

Session 4: Union Innovation – Making It Happen

16:15 – 16:40

Union Innovation Research Project Overview

Dr Helen Blakely, Cardiff University

16:40 – 17:30

Discussion summary, heading towards Liverpool

Philip Jennings General Secretary, UNI Global Union

Christina Colclough, Director, UNI Global Union

Closing session