

Shamika Sirimanne is the Director of ICT and Disaster Risk Reduction Division of UNESCAP. During her tenure with ESCAP, Ms. Sirimanne has served as the Secretary to the ESCAP Commission, headed the trade facilitation programme of ESCAP, and led the macroeconomic policy work and ESCAP's flagship publication, Economic and Social Survey of Asia and the Pacific. Before joining ESCAP, Ms. Sirimanne was with the United Nations Economic Commission for Africa (UNECA), where she led the economic policy team and task managed the Economic Report on Africa, the flagship publication of UNECA. Ms. Sirimanne has also worked for the Canadian Ministry of Finance and the World Bank. She has a PhD in economics.