

ITU-ASEAN Forum on Over the Top (OTT) Services :

Business, Policy and Regulatory Trends

December 8-9, 2015, Phnom Penh, Cambodia

Muhammad Razali Anuar has been with the Malaysian Communications and Multimedia Commission since 2000. Over 15 years, Razali has been working in various areas, including policy and regulatory, parliamentary matters, as well as infrastructure development.

As the head of the Policy Initiatives Department, Razali has been involved in regulatory policy reviews and initiatives, including broadcast licensing review, and consumer protection for mobile virtual network operators.

Prior to joining the Commission, Razali was a banker with one of Malaysia's development banks. Razali holds Bachelors' Degrees in Political Science and Telecommunications and a Master's Degree in Urban Planning and Development.