

Dr. Shahjahan Mahmood
Chairman, BTRC

Shahjahan Mahmood has joined Bangladesh Telecommunication Regulatory Commission (BTRC) as the Chairman in the third week of October, 2015.

Before joining BTRC, he worked for US Marine Corps at Quantico Marine Base, VA from 2012, first as the Program Office Software Lead and then as a Systems Engineer in the Program Office for the Acquisition and Modernization of Surveillance System. From 2004 to 2012, he worked at the Naval Surface Warfare Center (NSWC), Indian Head, MD on misc. problems.

Before joining NSWC, Indian head, he worked for 4 years at the Naval Research Lab, Washington, DC as a Systems Engineer in the Electronic Warfare Branch and another 4 years at the Naval Air Warfare Center – Aircraft Division (NAWCAD), Patuxent River, MD in the Simulation and Stimulation Branch developing software for simulating IR and UAV sensors on aircrafts.

Mr. Mahmood graduated from Bangladesh University of Engineering & Technology (BUET) Dhaka with a B.Sc. Engg (Elect). He completed M.S and obtained Ph.D. Degree from MIT, Cambridge, MA, USA. He taught graduate level courses in Stochastic Processes as an Adjunct Faculty for 3 years at the Florida Institute of Technology, Pax River Campus, MD. Mr. Mahmood has presented research papers and chaired many sessions in conferences on Structural Health Monitoring that were held at Stanford University, Tokyo, Spain, Italy and UK.