

Biography – Ms. Dalsie Green Baniala

Vanuatu – South Pacific

Dalsie Green Baniala is the CEO/Regulator for the Vanuatu Telecommunications and Radiocommunications Regulator's Office. Her executive regulatory work experience covers a Small Size Telecommunications Market with a population of around 272,459, and with 2 main mobile and 4 internet providers. Including with her core functions and roles on promoting sustainable market competition, management of Spectrum usage and Consumer Protection, she also provides oversight Management on the Government's Universal Access Policy (UAP) Trust Account including the implementation of the Vanuatu Government's unique and exciting Universal Access Policy which promotes a Play or Pay approach.

Dalsie also serves as one of the Steering Committee member for the Pacific Institute of Regulatory Resource Centre based in the University of the South Pacific which the Institution serves 9 member countries and also other non –member Pacific Island States.

- END -