

MR. BYUNG-JO SUH

PRESIDENT
NATIONAL INFORMATION SOCIETY AGENCY (NIA)
REPUBLIC OF KOREA

A BRIEF RESUME

With more than 30 years of dedication to the public administration and experience in the ICT industry, Mr. SUH has worked in the Ministry of Information and Communications developing various policies in the areas of information privacy and security, broadcasting and communications convergence.

With the completion of Ph. D. course work in International Development law in Paris Descartes University, College of Law, and Public Administration in Seoul National University and Korea University, Mr. SUH has had various management appointments and was Director General of the Ministry of Information and Communications, Executive Director of the President's Council on National ICT Strategies.

In 2015, Mr. SUH was appointed as the president of the National Information Society Agency of Republic of Korea, taking the vision to transcend toward Intelligence Information Society, led by the Fourth Industrial Revolution. He is making an utmost effort in building Korea as the leading nation of Intelligence Information society and continues his attribution toward both national and international ICT development and Informatization.