Criteria for selecting countries for establishing Regional Test Centres

- Countries belonging to a geographic region
- Countries sharing technical and/or economic interests
- Countries which have established Accreditation Bodies which are signatories to ILAC MRA
Criteria for selecting countries for establishing Regional Test Centres (cont’d)

- Countries which have metrology institutes to provide calibration services
- Synergism between the stakeholders - equipment vendors/standards development organizations/network operators/test centres
- Funding support from both public and private sectors