

Mr. Mohamed A. Haji

(Assistant Director, Frequency Planning,
Communications Commission of Kenya (CCK))

Born on 12 April 1973 in Mandera (Kenya), Mohamed Haji graduated from Moi University (Kenya) in 1998 with a Bachelor of Technology Degree in Electrical and Communications Engineering. He obtained a Master of Science degree in Telecommunication and Information Systems in 2005 from University of Essex (United Kingdom).

He joined Communications Commission of Kenya (CCK) in 2000 and worked as an Assistant Engineer, Standards & Type Approval until 2006. In 2006 he was appointed as Manager, New Technologies at CCK. In 2012 he was appointed to head Standards function at CCK. Since October 2012, he is the Assistant Director in charge of Frequency Planning at CCK.

