

Gan Siow Huang

Minister of State for Foreign Affairs and Trade & Industry, Singapore

Gan Siow Huang is the Minister of State for Foreign Affairs and Trade & Industry. She has been the Member of Parliament for Marymount Single Member Constituency since 2020.

Prior to her current role, Siow Huang championed the SkillsFuture movement and advocated for workplace diversity, flexible work arrangements, and mental well-being support as part of her work at the Ministry of Manpower and Ministry of Education.

Siow Huang served in the Republic of Singapore Air Force for more than 25 years and was the first female officer to attain the rank of Brigadier General in the Singapore Armed Forces. She was Chief of Staff – Air Staff from 2019 to 2020.

Siow Huang holds a Bachelor of Science (Economics) degree from the London School of Economics and Political Science (1996) and Master in Business Administration from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (2010).

A mother of three girls and an advocate for empowering women, Siow Huang mentors young women starting on their careers. She hopes to see more women in leadership roles in the community and at the workplace.