

James Manyika

Senior Vice President, Research, Labs, Technology & Society
Google and Alphabet

James focuses on advancing Google, Google DeepMind and Alphabet's most ambitious innovations in AI, Computing and Science and on their potential for broad beneficial impact on people and society. He also leads Google Research, Google Labs, Learning & Sustainability, and Technology & Society.

He was Vice Chair of the US National AI Advisory Committee and Co-Chair of the UN Secretary-General's AI Advisory Body, Vice Chair of the Global Development Council at the White House and member US Secretary of State's Foreign Affairs Policy Board.

He's a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, a Distinguished Fellow of Stanford's AI Institute, and in Ethics in AI at Oxford. A Rhodes Scholar, James has DPhil, MSc and MA from Oxford in AI and robotics, mathematics, and computer science, a BSc in electrical engineering from the University of Zimbabwe.