

Adit Maze Philip

Refugee Advocate, Kakuma Refugee Camp Kenya

Adit, a dedicated student from Our Ladies School in Kakuma Refugee Camp is a natural leader and a strong advocate for her fellow refugees. With a deep sense of compassion and responsibility, she actively supports her friends, helping them navigate the challenges of refugee life. Adit's commitment to uplifting her community reflects her passion for education and leadership, making her a role model for others in the camp. She is from South Sudan.