
5 December 2003
Original: English

Corrigendum to the Non-paper of the facilitation team on the Draft Declaration of Principles

Paragraph 5bis should be reintroduced as follow:

5bis. In keeping with the spirit of this declaration, we rededicate ourselves to upholding the principle of the sovereign equality of all States.

Paragraph 2bis:

Option A

Alternative 2bis. Nothing in this declaration shall be construed as impairing, contradicting, restricting or derogating the provisions of the Charter of the United Nations and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

Option B

Alternative 2bis. Nothing in this declaration shall be construed as impairing, contradicting, restricting or derogating the provisions of the Charter of the United Nations and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, any other international instrument or national laws adopted in furtherance of these instruments.