

World summit on the information society, Tunis: Legal Issues

You and your colleagues are invited to attend a seminar on legal issues in the global information society, Thursday, 17 November, 10 a.m., Kram Exhibition Center, Room Gafsa. In response to several inquiries, we confirm that there is no fee, and there is no need to pre-register for the session. However, a delegate badge is required to enter the Summit perimeter.

Welcome

Dennis Campbell, Director, Center for International Legal Studies, and Bertrand de la Chapelle, Director, wsis-online.net

Moderator

Sajai Singh, J. Sagar Associates, Bangalore, India

Speakers

Sakari Aalto, Roschier Holmberg, Attorneys Ltd., Helsinki, Finland
Vendor's Liability for Defective Software in a Global Market

Dana Beldiman, Carroll, Burdick & McDonough, LLP, San Francisco, California, United States

Copyright and the Challenges of the Digital Age: Can the Interests Be Reconciled?

Karen Mills, Karim Syah, Jakarta, Indonesia

Effective Formation of Contracts by Electronic Means: Does the World Need a Uniform Regulatory Regime?

Mark A. Nadeau, Squire, Sanders & Dempsey L.L.P., Phoenix, Arizona, United States
Resolving Disputes over Information Technology Transfers