

Biography of Stein Schjolberg

Stein Schjolberg is the Chief Judge of Moss tingrett Court in Norway. He was appointed as a Judge in 1984 and a Chief Judge in 1994. Until 1984 he was an Ass. Commissioner of Police in Oslo.

Judge Schjolberg is an international expert on cybercrime, and one of the founders of the harmonization of national criminal law on computer crime. He organized the first global survey on computer crime legislation in cooperation with Interpol in 1981. He has published widely on computer crime and cybercrime law.

Some of Judge Schjolberg's recent international presentations on cybercrime include:

- 7th International Interpol Conference on Cybercrime, New Dehli, India, (September 2007).
- Asia-Pacific Workshop on Frameworks for Cybersecurity, Hanoi, Vietnam, (August 2007)
- Digital PhishNet 2007 Conference, Berlin, Germany, (June 2007)
- The International Telecommunication Union (ITU), Geneva, Switzerland, (May 2007)
- NATO Advanced Research Workshop on Cyberterrorism, Sofia, Bulgaria (2006)
- The International Telecommunication Union, Geneva, Switzerland (2006)
- Council of Europe Meeting in the Cybercrime Convention Committee, Strasbourg (2006)
- The International Criminal Law Network, The Hague, The Netherlands (2005),
- The International Telecommunication Union, Geneva, Switzerland (2005),
- The 11th United Nations Crime Conference, Bangkok, Thailand (2005),
- Council of Europe Conference, Strasbourg, France (2004),
- Council of Europe Conference, Sinaia, Romania (2004),
- OECD Cybercrime Workshop, Oslo, Norway (2003),
- The 13th World Congress of Criminology, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil (2003),
- The 5th Interpol International Conference on Computer crime, Seoul, Korea (2002),
- The Conference on International Cooperation to Combat Cyber Crime and Terrorism, Stanford University, USA (1999).

Judge Schjolberg has served as an expert on cybercrime for the Council of Europe and United Nations institutions.

For more information see his websites

www.cybercrimelaw.net

www.globalcourts.com

