

SPEAKER BIO:

Name: Elena Romero

Studies: Telecommunications Engineer, Politechnical University - Madrid Professional career:

I worked 5 years in Telefónica R+D in Spain, in the development of value added services for Telefónica de España and Telefónica del Perú. In 1999 I joined Ericsson where I have worked in different positions from Project Manager to Core Network Marketing Manager in the Amena account. The last 2 years I have been working with IMS, driving the IMS Program in the MU Iberia. This program provides business and technical support to operator's in Spain and Portugal for the introduction of IMS in their networks. Currently I'm working as IMS Sales Manager in Stockholm, in the Business Unit Systems, where I give support to IMS sales opportunities around the world.
