

Biography

Elizabeth Migwalla

Elizabeth Migwalla is Senior Director, Government Affairs (Africa) for Qualcomm International Incorporated (Qualcomm). In this role Elizabeth interfaces directly with key government ministries, regulatory authorities as well as international regulatory forums, in order to drive the adoption 3G CDMA and other advanced broadband wireless technologies on the continent.

Elizabeth's distinguished career in various aspects of telecommunications engineering, operations, services and policy spans more than 25 years. She has built a reputation as one of Africa's leading experts on communications policy through her many accomplishments during this period. Prior to joining Qualcomm Elizabeth served The Boeing Company as its Regional Director for Regulatory Affairs for four years. Elizabeth also performed a similar role for ICO Global Communications for a period of five years.

Before entering the private sector in 1997, Elizabeth worked at the Kenya Post and Telecommunications Corporation, as both head of its International Services and Planning and Engineering departments. Elizabeth holds Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Engineering from the University of Nairobi (Kenya), and an MBA from Bond University in Australia.
