Talk number 1 (session 1)
What is Next after Next Generation Networks

Abstract: After an initial high level description of current status of NGN standardization, the presentation will describe future directions in NGN standardization, including vision and goals, as well as challenges and requirements in some key topics. Finally, it will present some worldwide initiatives towards the networks of the future, including the recently launched ITU-T Focus Group on Future Networks.