Mr. Bikienga Moustapha (Alumni of Youth Forum Africa 2004) is currently studying his Master degree in Informatics at University of Ouagadougou and.

He learnt from his university that there was a competition for the selection of delegate, who would represent his country to take part in ITU-Telecom Youth Forum in Egypt. Mr. Bikienga Moustapha was very interested in this event. After application, he was honored the opportunity to participate in Youth Forum Africa 2004. This particular activity made him realize that it was also young people's responsibility to promote the development of the ICTs in Africa.

"Youth Forum is an unforgettable experience in my life." Said Mr. Bikienga Moustapha, "During the Forum, I was very happy to meet so many young people gathered together. We come from different countries but we have same dreams and concerns – to promote the development of ICTs and diminish the Digital Divide."
