Mr. Oula Ingero (Alumni of Youth Forum World 2003) is currently working for an international IT company in South France. He participated in ITU-Telecom Youth Forum in 2003.

Mr. Oula Ingero first learnt about Youth Forum from an announcement on his university's website when he was studying. His interest in telecommunication industry made him believe it would be fascinating to meet many young people from all over the world to talk about technological, political, social and other issues. His participation turned out to be a very special experience in his life.

"I found that Youth Forum is a an excellent activity." Said Mr. Oula Ingero, "I hope that ITU will continue this program. It provides a unique opportunity for participants to be involved into the world development of the ICTs."
