Subject: Candidacy for the Vice-Chairmanship of ITU-T Study Groups

Dear Mr. Zhao,

The World Telecommunication Standardization Assembly (WTSA-04) will be held in Florianopolis, Brazil from 5 to 14 October 2004, at which the ITU-T SG chairmanship will be elected. Chinese Administration attaches great importance to the work of ITU-T, and is committed to play more active part in its activities. In this regard, Chinese Administration would like to propose the following candidates for the vice-Chairmanship of ITU-T Study Groups:

- Mr. Jiang Lintao, candidate for vice-chairman of ITU-T proposed Study Group on NGN,
- Mr. Qi Feng, candidate for vice-chairman of ITU-T Study Group 4 (Continue),
- Dr. Feng Wei, candidate for vice-chairman of ITU-T Study Group 11,
- Dr. Yu Shaohua, candidate for vice-chairman of ITU-T Study Group 17,
- Dr. Chen Jianyong, candidate for vice-chairman of ITU-T Study Group 17.

These candidates are all experienced experts in the fields of the ITU-T SGs mentioned above, and have been actively participating in the activities of these SGs. I'm confident that, once elected, they will be able to contribute more actively to the standardization work of ITU-T.

Please also find attached the resume of our candidates. I look forward to your positive consideration.

Sincerely yours,

Deputy Director General

Department of Foreign Affairs, Ministry of Information Industry, People's Republic of China
