

ITU-T Workshop

"Mobile Telecommunications and Fixed/Mobile Convergence – the realities going forward"

CV

Kyiv, 12 – 14 September 2005

ADRAIN SCRASE
ETSI

Session: 1.3: International Standardisation Framework
Title of Presentation: ETSI: A European Standards Organization Setting International Standards

Title of Presentation: ETSI: Technical and Economic Drivers for Convergence

Title of Presentation: ETSI: Progress in Developing Fixed/Mobile Standards

Adrian Scrase is Chief Technical Officer within the European Telecommunications Standards Institute (ETSI).

He played a central role in the negotiations which led to the creation of the 3rd Generation Partnership Project (3GPP) and is currently the Secretary of the 3GPP Project Co-ordination Group which is responsible for overall work programme management. He is also Head of the ETSI Mobile Competence Centre (MCC) which is an International team of 27 experts who provide comprehensive support to the Project.

In addition, he is responsible for the Fixed Competence Centre (FCC) and Radio Competence Centre (RCC), and is thus responsible for all standards production issues within ETSI.

He has more than 20 years experience in the telecommunications field, which includes 17 years of experience in standardization.