

A Short Biography: Clifford A. Bostic

Mr. Clifford A. Bostic currently holds the position of Director Digital Infrastructure within the Ministry of Innovation, Science and Smart Technology, in The Barbados Government. He joined the Government Service in December 2012.

Clifford has held various positions in the Telecommunications industry (from 1986 to the present) over thirty-three (35) years such as Chief Telecommunications Officer, Deputy Chief Telecommunications Officer, Telecommunications Engineer, Manager Retail Sales and Services, Manager Projects and Programs, Team Leader Development, Coordinator – Service Management, Training and Development Officer, Part – Time Lecturer and Teacher during an illustrious career in Telecommunications in Barbados.

He is the holder of a Masters of Sciences Degree (MSc) in Project Management and Evaluation (2003), a Bachelor of Science Degree in Social Sciences (2000) majoring in Management Studies, Economics and Accounting, holds the Bachelor of Science Degrees (BSc) in Natural Sciences (1985), majoring in Physics, Mathematics and Computer Sciences as well as currently enrolled in a Law Program at the University of the West Indies.

He is very committed to ensuring that Barbados and the Caribbean Region reach their full potential in the area of ‘Information and Communications Technologies and Telecommunications’ to support sustainable economic development. He is married with one son. Relaxes through weekend gardening, cycling, site seeing and Formula 1 motor sports.