

Lena Ostlund

Project Officer, International Telecommunication Union (ITU)

Lena works with the International Telecommunication Union, the UN specialized agency for information and communication technologies (ICTs). As a Project Officer, she is involved in different projects and initiatives related to gender, namely helping to coordinate the work of the EQUALS Global Partnership for Gender Equality in the Digital Age. Co-founded in 2016, EQUALS is a multistakeholder partnership reuniting more than 100 partners working towards digital inclusion and bridging the gender digital divide in four main areas: Access, Skills, Leadership and Research.

